

ACTINIDIA CHINENSIS, YANG TAU VINE.

Male flowers from plants which have flowered profusely for the past two seasons at the Plant Introduction Garden, Chico, California. Photographed April 18, 1910. The four vines at the Garden, introduced in 1904, have borne only male flowers. Female plants are being imported.